

Police Lieutenant James McCready

Police Lieutenant James McCready has been serving with the North Bay Village Police for over 33 years. During his career he has been assigned to every Division of the agency and served in a variety of capacities including: Patrol Operations, Support Services, Internal Affairs, and Criminal Investigations. He helped established the Police Department's Field Training Program, Underwater Recovery Team, Crime Scene Unit, Citizen's Crime Watch and School Resource Officer Program. He currently is a State Director on The Florida FOP Labor Council, and an active member in both the Dade County Chief of Police Association and the International Association of Chief of Police. During his distinguished career with the Village, Lieutenant McCready has been the recipient of many awards and commendations including multiple Life-Saving Awards, Miami Dade County Officer of the Year Finalist, Purple Heart, and the Medal of Valor.